

MUHLENBERG'S MINISTERIUM, BEN FRANKLIN'S DEISM, AND THE CHURCHES OF THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY

Reflections on the 250th Anniversary of the Oldest Lutheran Church Body in North America

John Reumann, editor

In 1748 six Lutheran pastors and laity from ten congregations gathered in Philadelphia under German missionary pastor Henry Melchior Muhlenberg to form the Ministerium of Pennsylvania — the first Lutheran church body in North America. These early American Lutherans stood at the crossroads of Lutheran orthodoxy, pietism, and rationalism as they faced the very new, very American challenge of forging a missional, confessional identity within their increasingly pluralistic and multi-religious society.

Now, more than 250 years later, this choice selection of essays, addresses, and other pieces celebrates the ongoing legacy of the Ministerium and will allow churches in the twenty-first century to glean new wisdom from a pioneering colonial church body.

“As the third millennium begins, churches — Lutheran and indeed all churches of tomorrow — wrestle with how heritage should and can be maintained and how new needs are to be met. That is common agenda for Christians generally. Exploration of the Muhlenberg Ministerium and East-Coast Lutheran heritage can have much to offer for tomorrow, and not just in Lutheran circles.”
