Nomination

We are looking for people who live faithfully under the discipline of Word and Sacrament, who love our Lord and the Church, and who are well informed about our life together in Christ, able to listen, pray, and decide in regard to all matters before this church when it assembles. The work of voting members of the Churchwide Assembly is that of trustees, not representatives of our personal points of view. Therefore, we are looking for people of faith, of knowledge, and of wisdom. Are you willing?
