Redevelopment Covenant between Good Samaritan Lutheran Church and the Synod

This is the first redevelopment of a congregation in our Synod for at least four years. It is based on the assumption that things as they have been in the congregation are no longer working well enough for the ministry to continue and, unless something happens, stagnation, decline and even closure are probable. A new direction is needed. For this new direction to be realized there needs to be consensus around the fundamental issue of forward movement for the congregation. People must be on the same team working together for the same purpose. They need to respect one another, Pastor Gloria, and the redevelopment team. Significant disagreements about these issues need to be resolved before going forward with a plan.

Good Samaritan

4. A coach will be provided through the Synod: This person will help the intern think through issues and strategies for leadership and success. A mentor may also be arranged to help the intern care for her soul by praying with and for her and listening. This may or may not be the same person as the coach.

The above stipulations were approved by unanimous congregational vote on July 23, 2013.

Motion 13.07.07 moved the request by Good Samaritan Lutheran Church to be under voluntary, temporary Synodical Administration for three years beginning September 1, 2013 and ending on or before December 31, 2016. Also moved for the approval of the Redevelopment Covenant between the congregation and the synod delineated above, as amended.

Motion 13.07.08 approved amending the motion to remove the last sentence. Amended motion now reads as follows: Motion 13.07.07 approved the request by Good Samaritan Lutheran Church to be under voluntary, temporary Synodical Administration for three years beginning September 1, 2013 and ending on or before December 31, 2016.

Report of the Synodical Women's Organization

Ms. Kathleen Meier provided the following written report for the council to consider...

The Executive Board of the Metro DC Synodical Women's Organization met on June 22, 2013 at Abiding Presence in Burke, Virginia. We welcomed the new Board members and recognized members who have been elected as officers for the coming two years. The new Officers and Board Members, with their home congregations, are listed at the end of this report.

After a thorough critique of the Annual Spring Convention, we have determined that it is imperative that we increase registration fees for next year from $25 to $35. The Convention is open to all women of the Synod and we will continue to offer free registration to new attendees and attendees under 40. However, every attendee will pay the cost of their lunch. Exhibitors, speakers, and workshop leaders will continue to receive their lunch free of charge.
